

Unauthorized Items

Items are not authorized to be moved if they are hazardous or carry a high risk because of their sensitivity to changes in temperature.

Hazardous Items Include

- Acetone
- Acids
- Adhesives
- Aerosol cans
- Alcohol/alcoholic beverages (in excess of 1 Gallon per container)
- Ammonia
- Ammunition
- Antifreeze
- Battery with acid
- Black powder
- Blasting caps
- Bleach
- Charcoal briquettes
- Chlorinated Hydrocarbons contained in decorative lamps (e.g., Lava Lamps)
- Cleaning fluids
- Combustible liquids
- Compressed gases
- Corrosive liquids
- Disinfectants
- Engine-starting fluids
- Explosives
- Fire extinguishers
- Fireworks
- Flame retardants
- Gasoline/Kerosene
- Hoverboards with batteries
- Igniters
- Items containing flammable gas, flammable liquid, toxic, or corrosive substances
- Lacquer
- Lighter fluid
- Lithium batteries*
- Paints, dyes, or stains
- Primers
- Propane tanks
- Propellants
- Rust prevention products
- Scuba diving tanks (unless accompanied by written certification from a licensed dive shop stating it contains less than 25 PSI at 70°F, or the tank is completely empty and the valve is removed or replaced with a plug)
- Signal flares
- Weed/insect killers
- Welding gases
- Wood filler
- Any items specifically listed as "Hazardous Materials" in the DTR: Examples of Hazardous Materials, Part IV, Appendix I

During the pre-move survey, you must identify all items containing lithium cells or batteries that you intend to ship.*